

About Core

Presented by Helen Purcell
CORE Services Manager
London, 25th – 27th March 2013

The Common Box

Hammersmith and Fulham Volunteer Centre

HFVC is a volunteer agency whose function is to

- promote, support and develop volunteering,

and

- provide assistance through information, advice, guidance and training (IAG) and pre-employment support to help people into work / or education.

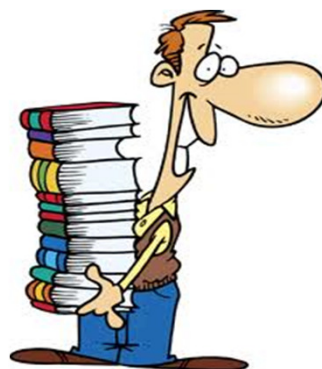

The Common Box

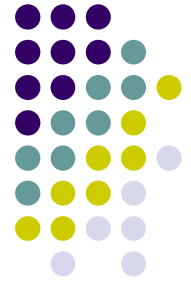

How do we do this?

- Promoting & developing volunteering opportunities.
- Recruiting, placing & supporting volunteers, particularly people from BAMER & White Working Class Communities so as to increase the involvement of these communities.

The Common Box

How do we do this?

- Developing good practice in the use of volunteers in the London Borough of Hammersmith & Fulham (H&F) by providing information, training, support and advice to voluntary organisations in their use of volunteers.
- Improving services for the community through the facilitation of volunteering opportunities .

The Common Box

How do we do this?

- Promoting volunteering to the Voluntary, Statutory & Business Sectors to minimise social exclusion in the development of social and employment skills .
- Maintaining the viability of the organisation through fundraising activities and development of services.
- Facilitating one off volunteering challenges for the Business Sector to develop employee volunteering.

The Common Box

Main activities:

- Encourage volunteering in H&F by disseminating information on local volunteering opportunities to prospective volunteers;
- Recruit, support and place volunteers with voluntary organisations, community groups, businesses and statutory service providers and develops new volunteering opportunities in H&F;
- Provide support and training to the above groups and volunteers we work with, and especially people from BAMER groups, White Working Class and people from Eastern Europe.

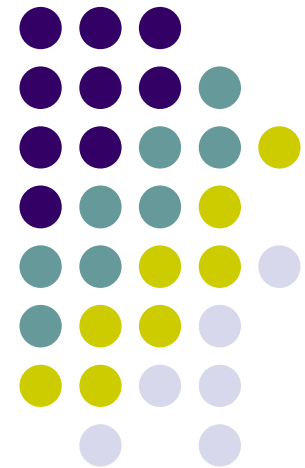

The Common Box

Thank you! Any Questions?

For more information about the Hammersmith and Fulham
Volunteer Centre visit:

www.hfvc.org.uk

The Common Box

